

Love & Honor Code

We, the members of the Miami University Associated Student Government, do hereby pledge ourselves to this Code. We intend to lead by serving the interests, needs, and wants of the student body; by maintaining a level of conduct that enables us to build trust as effective and honest leaders; by pledging ourselves to accountability which is reasonable, upright, and productive in the execution of our duties.

- Members are to uphold the Miami University Code of Conduct.
- Members must make every reasonable attempt to fulfill their responsibilities to the best of their ability. Each member must perform their duties in good faith and with the best interests of the student body in mind.
- Members are to be forthright, honest, and fully transparent in their communications with their constituents. They shall never knowingly falsify information in their capacity as a representative.
- Members are to conduct themselves in a professional manner when interacting as a representative and in a manner that shall reflect positively on the Associated Student Government and Miami University in any capacity; members are to maintain respect for the University, its employees, their fellow representatives, and all members of the student body.
- Members are prohibited from granting favors, making undue use or influence of powers of office, or offer special considerations of any kind in exchange for anything of material or intrinsic value.
- Members are prohibited from misusing, mismanaging, or misappropriating their position and/or equipment, facilities, or funds of the Associated Student Government.
- Members are to lead by example in their conduct in the discharge of their duties.

Members shall respect all members of the Oxford and extended Miami community regardless of age, color, disability, ethnicity, gender identity or expression, geographic location, language or linguistic ability, legal or visa status, national origin or ancestry, political affiliation or ideology, protected military status, physical condition, pregnancy, race, religion, size, sex, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic status in compliance with Miami University non-discrimination and anti-harassment policy at all times.
