IX. Reports

X. New Business Item B: Secretary for Communications & Media Relations election

i. Emmett Knee

1. Knee: I am a third year student studying Strat Comm and Spanish. I have participated in Just Duet and Alpha Kappa Psi. I work as a communications intern in CAS. For internal communications, I want to collaborate with the new finance secretaries to create a guide with common funding mistakes. I want to work with more DEI communications and have a weekly meeting with the Miami Student beat reporter. I also want to work on external communications, working to establish an ASG section on the Miami Matters newsletter. I want to continue the podcast, broadcasting our initiatives and rallying support of other student governments.
2. Senator Parker: You mentioned greater attention to the Hub, can you expand on this?
3. Knee: I want to promote ASG-related programming on the Hub, as it is currently not being placed there. I want to show students that we are making an effort to reach out to them.
4. Senator Hughes: I see the podcast and TV initiatives, can you expand on these?
5. Knee: I've discussed this with a couple senators, I want to find a way to create a condensed version, sort of like a recap, for students to digest so they know what we're doing. I think the podcast could be related to issues students have on campus.

6. Senator DeVictor: What housekeeping initiative are you most excited about?
7. Knee: I think the newsletter is what I'm most excited about. I'd love to collaborate with other cabinet members on this and I'd like to highlight what other committees are doing.
8. Motion to enter executive session
9. Motion is seconded
10. Motion is approved
11. Congratulations to Secretary-elect Emmett Knee!

- XI. New Business Item C: SR212222: The Bee Bill: A Resolution to Show Student Support for Miami's Partnership in Bee Initiatives Pursued by the City of Oxford
- a. Senator Hanson: This is an off-campus initiative and we are trying to show support of bee initiatives. Oxford has a rich history of beekeeping, and a conference was held here in 1969. We were contacted by a city councilperson to try and bring back bee programming.
  - b. Senator Webb: We reached out to the Miami Agricultural Society, and they are in full support. Global bee population rates are on the decline, and this initiative would be great for programming and awareness. This is a starting point for students to take further action. We will work with the SCRC to promote this cause to the city council.
  - c. Senator Kelley: Why is this going through the off-campus committee and not on-campus?
  - d. Secretary Manley: This stemmed through SCRC, so it is going through the city.
  - e. Senator Ogunnowo: What would it look like if Miami showed its support?
  - f. Senator Webb: We don't have any concrete ideas yet, but we would like to see things like a honey festival and other events.
  - g. Senator Crone: I think this initiative is wonderful and unique. Beekeeping is vital to the global upkeep, I am in support.
  - h. Secretary-elect Parker: This is a great cause and written very well.
  - i. Alternate Harvey: Bees are super important, everyone should support this initiative.
  - j. Senator Ogunnowo: We should definitely pass this to help the Miami environment.
  - k. Senator Davies: I won't bumble for too long, but I know I'm buzzing with excitement. I hope it brings swarms of people which would be sweet. I will be voting yes on this resolution.
  - l. Motion to end debate and call to question
  - m. Motion is seconded
  - n. SB212222 passes
- XII. New Business Item D: Secretary of Infrastructure & Sustainability election
- i. Jules Jefferson

1. Jefferson: I am a second-year from Westchester. I have been on leadership teams for several green organizations. I have learned what does and what does work and how to communicate with administrators. I want increased participation in the sustainability module, update the recycling signs, and reduce single-use plastics on campus by leveraging the new relationship with Aramark. I want to bring back hard silverware to reduce plastic use in the dining hall. I want to continue conversations with students about the issues they are facing. For the committee, we will focus on communicating with Aramark and other students. We always want to communicate with other students.
2. Senator Grabow: What is your opinion of Aramark:
3. Jefferson: I participated in some experiences with Aramark. I think they are a good partnership because of the things they want to address. Hopefully there are no more concerns after next year.
4. Senator Hughes: How would you describe your leadership style?
5. Jefferson: My style is very collaborative. I want to know what ideas senators have and I want to bring people with me. I am apart of EWB and we are hosting a boot camp under my supervision.
6. Secretary Sutton: Do you have any ideas on collaboration with other committees?
7. Jefferson: I want to increase recycling awareness to off-campus students, and I am not skilled at making graphics so I will rely on the Comms committee.
8. Motion to enter executive session
9. Motion is seconded
10. Motion is approved
11. Congratulations to Secretary-elect Jules Jefferson!

XIII. New Business Item E: Secretary for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion election

i. Senator Kennedy Hughes

1. Senator Hughes: I am the RA senator, and I RA in the Scholar Leader community. My pillars focus on developing senators and expanding the scope of DEI. I want to collaborate with SBP Kaur on the creation of a Director of DEI Outreach. My strength lies with advocacy/legislation, and I don't want that strength to allow outreach to fall behind. It could eventually be a co-secretary position as well. I want to practice transparency as secretary, and I am aware that the people I will be serving will be senators. I want to promote long term initiatives, encouraging legislation with multiple steps. I want to work on several initiatives for the school to focus on, and the rest of my initiatives are on the slide.

2. Senator Crone: What do you mean by eliminating “catch-all” legislation?
3. Senator Hughes: It would specifically be for the DEI committee, encouraging not having legislation for the purpose of having legislation.
4. Secretary Sutton: Have you thought about collaborating with Safety?
5. Senator Hughes: Accessibility is a huge part of DEI, and ASG has put it to the side in the past. I’m really excited to collaborate with other committees.
6. Senator Guy: Is there a particular initiative that are you excited to work on?
7. Senator Hughes: I am really excited to work on multi-language tours, trying to bring in more diversity of tours and encouraging more personal tours for prospective students that don’t speak English.
8. Motion to enter executive session
9. Motion is seconded
10. Motion is approved
11. Congratulations to Secretary-elect Kennedy Hughes!

XIV. New Business Item F: Speaker of the Student Senate election

i. Speaker Pro Tempore Wes Payne

1. Speaker Pro Tempore Wes Payne: I’m running for Speaker of Student Senate again. I’m going to briefly go through it. This is about me. Served as senator then Pro Temp. Workshops and leadership training. Student org panels and outreach events. Have a new approach to the way that we do funding. Increase dedication of senate time to senate expectations. Reduce requirements to get new senators. The decision to run again was difficult. I have had some very good conversations since two weeks ago. I have looked at myself as a person and a leader and have received helpful constructive criticism . I am confident that I am the right person to be a speaker. I am even more confident now and capable. I’m growing every day. I am taking steps to grow. One major thing is be Speaker.
2. Sen. Parker: It takes a lot to come back here. You mentioned potential reduction for requirements and will that apply for returning senators?

3. Speaker Pro Tempore Wes Payne: This will apply for everyone. Having it for the first semester. I think halving it would help the transition of a senator.
4. Sen. Ogunnowo: Can you talk more about your approach to funding?
5. Speaker Pro Tempore Wes Payne: I want to work with the newly elected secretaries. Seeing if there's anything to make the process better in general.
6. Sen. Grabbow: To the people that voted no confidence last time why should they change their vote?
7. Speaker Pro Tempore Wes Payne: I don't think there's a better way to grow as a position than to be here by showing people. Creating better leaders.
8. Sen. Kelley: What is one action step you'd like to take?
9. Speaker Pro Tempore Wes Payne: I'd like to meet with the Office of Community Standards which Senator Bakshi and I have talked about. I have struggled and it's hard and asking adults would help me.
10. Motion to enter executive session
11. Motion is Seconded
12. Motion is passed
13. CONGRATULATIONS THOMAS WESLEY PAYNE ON NEW SPEAKER

XV. New Business Item G: Secretary for Off-Campus Affairs

i. Senator Danielle Stein

1. Senator Danielle Stein: I have been involved in ASG since September of my freshman year. I have not been on the Off-Campus committee until this year, but I know a lot about the off-campus experience firsthand. I've worked hard to earn respect because of my age and have served on U-Senate. A concern from off-campus senators has been outreach for off-campus students. I want to provide fliers to off-campus students about initiatives. I'm super excited to continue the safety alarm initiatives. I want to work with OPD and want to work with the I&S secretary.
2. Senator Davies: Is there anything else you'd like to share with us?
3. Senator Stein: I want to encourage recycling for off-campus students.
4. Senator Crone: What would you like to work on as a committee?

5. Senator Stein: I think other initiatives often get passed to other committees, and I would like to collaborate with other committees.
6. Senator Grabow: Why didn't you run the first time this election happened?
7. Senator Stein: I met with Secretary Manley and was considering running, but I felt like I didn't have time to formulate ideas. I also was made fun of losing my SBP election, and I didn't run because I was scared.
8. Secretary Sutton: How do you plan on working with different Oxford entities?
9. Senator Stein: I work uptown and have connections there, as well as professional connections. I like to be well known and to equate myself.
10. Congratulations to Secretary-elect Danielle Stein!

B. Introductions

II. Administration Updates/Concerns

- A. Kathy: All operations will now be run through Aramark, so contact them for anything!
- B. Brian: Scott would normally be here as well!
- C. Jonathan: There's been a lot of behind the scenes change since May. Our primary change was Armstrong. We wanted to listen to feedback. We implemented Grubhub and have dealt with some kinks, like with anything new. We then moved into the Commons. We also have concessions with the first home football game. We've also changed up the way food is being prepared, and we're working with Joanna to include nutrition. We're making good progress but we have to keep working. Hiring has always been an issue, but we're still working. I've been putting some stuff on my social media accounts, and we have some people through that. We all come from different universities, so we're taking things we did there and use them to build ideas. It's going to be an exciting year! There has been a huge issue Gluten/Celiac need on this campus. We're hitting that very hard.
- D. Amanda: We're still trying to merge the two teams together, which is a change for everybody. We had a great management meeting yesterday. Lots of folks are coming down to support culinary wise.

- E. Jules: Question, what does marketing really mean in the perspective of students?
  - 1. Christian: Social media, signage for the commons across campus.
- F. Brian: The Haines location is open now! Sumeshi moved as well. What's the plan for where Sumeshi has been?
  - 1. Amanda: Field to fork! It's a play off of Dividends.
  - 2. Brian: Withrow Starbucks still not open. But the goal is, it's not an equipment problem but a staffing issue?
  - 3. Amanda: Working on windows and floors. We have an ample amount of students, just working on training.
  - 4. Grace: Is there a targeted date?
    - a) Amanda: Not quite yet. Maybe after fall break, but that's a huge maybe.
  - 5. Jonathan: One of the biggest hiccups was equipment. Now that we're getting in there, we're getting there. There's a huge need to get that open.
- G. Joanna: There was some concern about allergens. We're continuing to be nut friendly. There is a different type of allergen icon. New platform.
  - 1. Jonathan: I need to gauge Kosher dining on campus, and we had awareness of what dishes contain pork. A lot of people don't eat pork and we need to have it added sooner rather than later.
- H. Christian: With the feedback, some locations have a QR code on the tables, and it's a quick survey about quality of food. It helps us a lot! We need both the good and the bad.
- I. Kathy: In addition to the QR codes on the tables, the university is involved in an organization called NACUFS, and every year we do a very large survey for food quality, we could use ASG support to get that broadcast. It's the same question at every campus, so we can benchmark against other campuses. These things all lead back to admissions. We need as much feedback as possible. There are three questions on the survey we could specify to Miami, and they're all fill in. One of the questions is if you live off campus what would get you to purchase a meal plan. Another one is what would get you to work in dining, and most responses have to do with not wanting to deal with customers. The final question is about allergens and special diets. Anything you guys can do to get more responses would be great. There will be a unique code to the student.
- J. Kathy: We need support for the student body for the digital IDs and downloading the Grubhub app.
  - 1. Grace: Number for the digital IDs?
  - 2. Kathy: Not quite, but we have them from a few weeks ago. You can just tap the door, you don't have to pull it out.

III. Associated Student Government Updates

- A. 23 open seats for ASG, but we hope a lot of those will be filled with special elections!
- B. National Brand Survey update - 424
  - 1. Brian: Everyone knows Panera is coming, and the goal is for that to open next fall. We want to fast track the next brand.
  - 2. Jules: Do we know where it will come to campus?
  - 3. Brian: Tentative plan is that it will be here in Armstrong. Depending what it is.
- C. ASG is co-sponsoring a Blood Drive on September
  - 1. Kathy: Did you submit the digital AD?
  - 2. Grace: No!
  - 3. Kathy: Student orgs get a half ad for free for a week.
- D. Aramark coming to ASG?
- E. On the Grubhub app, there's an option for vegan and gluten free flatbread wraps for Evergrains, but they've been sold out since the beginning of the semester. Will those eventually be available?
  - 1. Jonathan: Wrote this down!

IV. Student Concerns

- A. Jules: At some point I will like to bring up sustainability in the future, specifically composting. I was looking at the Aramark 2021 year in review thing. Specifically composting.
- B. Amanda: I just got off the phone with the EcoReps, and I have a lot of ideas about composting.
- C. Jules: Talking about your past, Miami is in the process of hiring a new Director of Sustainability. Should be announced soon.
- D. Amanda: In the future, we are bringing a sustainability manager.
- E. Jules: I think it would be great to maybe start with Shriver, then maybe move to a commons.
- F. Jonathan: It does really well to start small and get it done well. The bowls here are compostable, but they're no better than plastic without composting. We do have the means with purchasing, but we can give you an open fields source. Starbucks is fair trade, so that counts towards points. We can fill out the food part of it very easily. We can show you what initiatives we have, cage free eggs and local purchasing. The biggest piece is student awareness, because it means nothing. Students take a lot of food and then waste it. Do you guys have a food donation program?
- G. Jules: We have the meal swipe donation program. Not a lot of swipes get used. I don't use all my swipes.

- H. Brian: The issue has always been that students haven't had much of a need, not that we haven't had too many! One of the biggest things is do students know?
- I. Kathy: Also identifying who the students are with the food insecurities.
- J. Jules: We may want to bring off-campus affairs into it.
- K. Brian: You all can reach out to the student success center.
- L. Amanda: We used to do a program where we would identify healthier options and then students would purchase them and then we would have a pantry.
- M. Kathy: We did that a few years ago.
- N. Brian: Students can't donate dining dollars, but that would be a great option. Those are great opportunities.
- O. Jules: Does this committee have a relationship with the Food Recovery Network?
- P. Brian: Are we talking about donating items or dining hall food?
- Q. Jules: Donating I think.
- R. Brian: I think that would be the Student Success Center. Craig Bennett and Ashley Hopkins are two great contacts.
- S. Jules: STAR report

V. Group Discussion: Student Employment

- A. How can ASG help with increasing student employment?
- B. Christian: I'll send you something.
- C. Grace: We can make a post!
- D. Amanda: Uniform, free meal per shift, $14 an hour, and there are positions available for student managers. We want to make a student leadership program as well. Christian is looking for marketing interns. HR, finance, some functional groups.
- E. Grace: We could email individual colleges as well.
- F. Jonathan: It's very flexible as well. I work with a lot of computers, and I would much rather our folks with talent focus on preparing food. At UC, I had a student worker at every dining hall that did more of the computer stuff. Are we looking at the program for the student swap? There is a program where you can have your scheduled shifts and you can post shifts swaps and similar things. You don't have to work for eight hours or anything. Students have a lot more than just studies.
- G. Grace: We also don't have any dining hall workers on the committee.
